Questionnaires for Czechoslovakia

Czechoslovakia is presently the largest Satellite developer and producer of light aircraft. Reportedly, CEMA (Council of Material Economic Assistance) has delegated the development and production of light aircraft to the Czechoslovakian and Polish aircraft industries. Reports of the types and numbers of aircraft on Czechoslovakian airfields will assist materially in the determination of the influence that CEMA decisions have upon the Czechoslovakian aircraft industry. Reports of numbers, types and aircraft seen on Czechoslovakian airfields aids in the determination of the production of the Czechoslovakian aircraft industry.
